Criteria for Selection of Institutions/Individuals for the National Award for Child Welfare:-

Institutions should be those that are not entirely Government funded. They could be Government aided or otherwise. The institutions should have been in the field of child welfare for some years and should have, to their record, a good performance in the field. The branches of institutions working independently will also qualify for selection for the award. The selection will be made solely on the basis of quality of performance and the number of children served by the institution.

The individuals to be selected for the award should have worked for the cause of the children for some years. Paid officers of the institutions will not be eligible for selection. The sole basis of selection will be the quality of work performed by the individual for the cause of children and its significance of the cause.

Criteria for Selection of children for the National Child Award for Exceptional Achievement:-

Children between the age of 4 to 15 years, who have shown exceptional achievement in any field including academics, arts, culture and sports etc. will be considered for the Award.

Criteria for Selection of Individuals for the Rajiv Gandhi Manav Seva Awards for Service to Children:-

The (3) individuals to be selected for the Awards should have worked for the cause of children for over 10 years. Paid officers of the institutions will not be eligible for selection. The sole basis of selection will be the quality of work performed by the individual for the cause of children and its significance of the cause.

3. The above State Level Selected Committee shall scrutinize the nominations received and select the institutions/ individuals/children, to recommend for the awards to the Government of India.
